YOUR AWARD BRAND ESSENTIALS

How to talk about the Award

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award is a global framework for non-formal education and learning, which challenges young people to dream big, celebrate their achievements and make a difference in their world. Through developing transferable skills, increasing their fitness levels, cultivating a sense of adventure and volunteering in their community, the Award helps young people to find their purpose, passion and place in the world. It operates in more than 130 countries and territories, helping to inspire millions of young people to take control and make their own choices.

LOGO FORMAT	BEST USED FOR
JPG/JPEG	Most commonly used format for image files online as it's compressed.
PNG	Your logo will appear directly on top of any background without a rectangle around it as the background is transparent.
RGB	This colour model is used for all online and digital purposes.
CMYK	CMYK format is best used for print.

Where to use the Logo

You may use the Foundation's logo on a web page (if you have a website) with a link back to the Foundation's website: www.intaward.org. The Foundation can advise on how this page should look. Please do not use the Foundation's logo on any materials created by you, the NAO.

How to use your NAO logo correctly

To help grow awareness of the visual identity please also use your Award logo whenever you talk about the Award, whether this is on your website and/or when you are creating marketing and operational materials. This logo is not to be used by your Award Centres.

	 The country name only of this logo can be translated into your own language.	 This logo can be translated into your national language.
	 DO NOT USE THE FOUNDATION LOGO	  DO NOT SHRINK OR ENLARGE THE AWARD LOGO

As per Clause 6 in the licence the Foundation grants the NAO a/an non-exclusive/exclusive, royalty-free, licence to use the Name, Logo and Materials of the Award for the duration of this Licence. The NAO acknowledges that the Name, Logo and Materials are owned by the Foundation. The Name, Logo and Materials of the Award must be used in accordance with the Foundation’s Brand Guidelines and in accordance with your licensed branding route.

For more details, inspiration and tips on how to use the Award brand, including fonts and pantones, please see our full Brand Guidelines.

To help create Award branded materials, please visit the Brand Centre where you will have access to various items automatically populated with your Award logo.

WHO WE ARE

#WORLD #READY

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award is a global framework for non-formal education and learning, which challenges young people to discover their purpose, passion and place in the world; to be ready for their world - whatever that may be.

OUR VISION

To reach more young people from diverse backgrounds and equip them as individuals to succeed in life.

#WORLDREADY

OUR VALUES

We believe in...

Empowering

Being progressive

Being diverse

Being connected

OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Individual

Non-Competitive

Achievable

Voluntary

Developmental

Balanced

Progressive

Inspirational

Persistence

Enjoyable

Our guiding principles are critical elements of our brand and are essential to anyone responsible for delivering the Award.

OUR BRAND

Our brand is made up of:

Our visual identity

Colour palette

Tone of voice

Typographic style

Photography

Together, they help create a consistent style and deliver our vision.

OUR BRAND AT A GLANCE

The Award challenges young people to discover their full potential and find their purpose, passion and place in the world.

WHAT WE TALK ABOUT

The importance of non-formal education and learning; being #WORLDREADY

WHAT WE SHOW

Young people gaining transferable and universal skills, discovering their full potential by participating in the Award

HOW WE TALK

Using inspiring language that challenges young people to find their purpose, passion and place in the world

WHAT WE CALL OURSELVES (INFORMALLY)

The Award

WHAT YOU MAY CALL YOURSELVES (INFORMALLY)

Depending on the branding route you have chosen, examples include the Award; DofE; Duke of Ed; IAYP; MEPI

OUR TONE OF VOICE

'To speak from the heart a little more and the head a little less'

The Award is known in many different ways around the world. And while it's important to talk about the Award in ways which resonate within our own countries, there are also opportunities for us to create consistency in our global messaging.

We want to help the Award family to explain what we do and how we do it, succinctly and emotively.

OUR STORY IN SECONDS

And it's not limited by the boundaries of one programme or place. There are more than 1 million young people currently completing their own unique programme, via hundreds of thousands of youth-focused partners and operators, who are in tune with the interests and challenges facing young people today, including schools, youth organisations, examination boards and youth offender institutions.

YOUR MONOLITHIC LOGO

There are a number of variations of the national logo available, in line with a country's chosen branding route.

On the following pages, you will find use of block colour across both the full and cropped logos.

By creating a range of options, the logo is both flexible and easy to use while maintaining the brand's core look and feel.

YOUR NATIONAL LOGO /VERSION 1

Your National Logo & Colour Variations/VERSION 1

Use this option if you wish to use the name The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award.

This logo is one of two options available for a country to use as a monolithic logo at a national level. Those who have chosen the branding route using The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award, only the tagline and country element of the logo is available for translation. For those who have chosen The International Award for Young People branding route, a suite of fully translated logos is available.

ALUMNI LOGO OPTIONS

ALUMNI LOGO

The Foundation has created a new logo for use by all local alumni groups (LAGs) who have officially signed up to join the Global Award Alumni Network (GAAN). The new logo is derived from the Foundation's main brand and it is strictly for use by officially-recognised alumni groups.

LAG option

Official member of

This is the logo for use by LAGs who are official members of the GAAN. The use of this logo is granted by the Foundation through the Letter of Agreement to join the GAAN. Where the LAG is established and managed independently from the NAO/OP, the use of the logo is monitored by the National Award Operator (NAO)/Operating Partner (OP) in the country/region in which the LAG operates. In the instance that there is no NAO in a country where the LAG operates, the Foundation may either monitor the use of the logo directly or nominate an Award Operator to monitor.

Our photography style should be a natural and unstaged representation of young people and adults participating in the Award.

Images should try to capture what the Award aims to achieve: a sense of adventure, a sense of people, and a sense of character and strength.

Our photographs should also reflect our Award values of being empowering, diverse, connected and progressive.

Images should always be provided for print at 300dpi. When capturing new images, consider the format (landscape or portrait) of the image and its end use.

PLEASE ENSURE
YOU HAVE OBTAINED
APPROPRIATE
CONSENT BEFORE
TAKING AND/OR USING ANY IMAGES.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Social media platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Instagram allow the Award family to engage with stakeholders including existing and potential volunteers, supporters and participants, in an interactive and conversational way.

These channels can be useful to build discussion about the Award and the importance of non-formal education and learning, alongside providing highly visual content of real-time updates on Award activity around the world.

NAOs are welcome to use a tone of voice that speaks to your individual audiences, including the use of emojis and hashtags as appropriate, but as one Award family, we all use language and content that aligns with the Award's Guiding Principles.

International Award @intaward · Aug 27
Non-formal education, such as that offered by the Award has been heralded for helping to develop those 'soft' skills – or 'universal' skills – which so many are now seeking.
