

Working Together – Mahi Tahī Ana

What is the Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award and why should I get involved?

The concept of the Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award (the Award) is simple – anyone aged 14 to 24 can do a programme at one of three progressive levels which, when successfully completed, lead to a Bronze, Silver or Gold Award.

Because Award programmes are all about getting out there, having fun and self-development, everyone can achieve something. You'll find yourself helping people or the community, getting fitter, developing skills, going on an adventurous journey and at Gold level only, taking part in a residential activity.

What do I need to do to achieve my Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award?

The programme is made up of four sections (five at Gold). Over the required time you'll need to do each activity for an average of an hour a week. You'll need to show persistence, commitment, and personal development.

Bronze (14+ years old)

To achieve your Bronze Award, you need to complete the following sections:

Voluntary Service	Physical	Skills	Adventurous Journey
3 months	3 months	3 months	Plan, train for and complete a 2 day, 1 night adventurous journey
You must also undertake a further three months of appropriate activity in either the Voluntary Service, Physical or Skills section

Silver (15+ years old)

To achieve your Silver Award, you need to complete the following sections:

Voluntary Service	Physical	Skills	Adventurous Journey
6 months	6 months	6 months	Plan, train for and complete a 3 day, 2 night adventurous journey
If you have not completed your Bronze Award, you must undertake a further six months of appropriate activity in either the Voluntary Service, Physical or Skills section			If you have not completed your Bronze Award, you must first complete your Bronze Adventurous Journey training and Bronze practice journey

Gold (16+ years old)

To achieve your Gold Award, you need to complete the following sections:

Voluntary Service	Physical	Skills	Adventurous Journey	Gold Residential Project
12 months	12 months	12 months	Plan, train for and complete a 4 day, 3 night adventurous journey	Undertake a shared activity in a residential setting away from home for 5 days and 4 nights
If you have not completed your Silver Award, you must undertake a further six months of appropriate activity in either the Voluntary Service, Physical or Skills section			If you are a Direct Entrant Gold, you must first complete your Bronze and then your Silver Adventurous Journey training and practice journey

Choosing activities

There are a lot of activities you may already be doing that can count towards your Award. Here are a few examples to help get you started:

Voluntary Service: Volunteer at a local DOC planting site, coach or manage a sports team, fundraise for a charity, volunteer at the SPCA, become a leader at a youth club, help with an emergency services team such as surf lifesaving

Physical: do a team sport such as soccer or netball, athletics, skiing, kayaking, kickboxing, horse riding, running, dancing

Skills: play a musical instrument, learn a craft such as jewellery making, referee or umpire for a sport, learn sign language, drama, and theatre skills

Adventurous Journey: this is something you will plan for; it involves being part of a team and completing an adventurous journey for a set number of days. Search the Way provide many amazing opportunities for training and tramps to help you achieve your Adventurous Journey.

Gold Residential Project (Gold Award only): attend a residential programme for five days and four nights with people you don't know and undertake purposeful activity – e.g., helping at a youth camp, cookery course, sailing course. Search the Way have some amazing opportunities for participants to complete their Gold Residential Project.

How Can Search the Way Help?

Search the Way is an Accredited Provider of the Adventurous Journey section of the Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award. We provide training programmes, resources, and outdoor learning journeys to empower personal development and look forward to assisting you to complete your own learning journey. Search The Way has been set up as a ministry of encouragement to help others discover more about who they are and what their purpose in life is. We haven't met anyone yet who isn't great at something! We want people to be inspired to start seeking far horizons and support them to step out and achieve set goals.

At Search The Way, as a Duke of Edinburgh's Award Unit, we can help participants based in the West Coast and Top of the South Island, with the following:

Getting started

- Step 1 Decide which level of the Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award programme you would like to do – this will depend on your age, time commitments etc
- Step 2 Talk to your Award Leader and arrange to register to do your Award programme
- Step 3 Decide with your Award Leader what you are going to do for each section of your Award programme
- Step 4 Get started! Don't forget to log your progress on ORB, our online record book, and ask your Assessors to sign off each section as you complete them
- Step 5 Once your Award programme is complete, speak to your Award Leader who will arrange for you to receive your certificate or badge. They can also advise you about starting the next level of the Award if appropriate.

How long will it take?

The time it will take to complete your programme and achieve an Award is in many ways down to you. The shortest time in which you can complete your Bronze programme is 6 months; your Silver programme, 6 months; and your Gold programme, 12 months. During your programme you'll need to do each activity for an average of an hour a week over this time. Don't forget – you have until your 25th birthday to complete any programme and achieve an Award!
