OUTDOOR EDUCATION CENTRE

What is the Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award and why should I get involved?

The concept of the Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award (the Award) is simple – anyone aged 14 to 24 can do a programme at one of three progressive levels which, when successfully completed, lead to a Bronze, Silver or Gold Award.

Because Award programmes are all about getting out there, having fun and self-development, everyone can achieve something. You'll find yourself helping people or the community, getting fitter, developing skills, going on an adventurous journey and at Gold level only, taking part in a residential activity.

What do I need to do to achieve my Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award?

The programme is made up of four sections (five at Gold). Over the required time you'll need to do each activity for an average of an hour a week. You'll need to show persistence, commitment and personal development.

Bronze (14+ years old)

To achieve your Bronze Award, you need to complete the following sections:

Voluntary Service	Physical	Skills	Adventurous Journey
3 months	3 months	3 months	Plan, train for and complete a 2 day, 1 night adventurous journey
You must also undertake a further three months of appropriate activity in either the Voluntary Service, Physical or Skills section

Silver (15+ years old)

To achieve your Silver Award, you need to complete the following sections:

Voluntary Service	Physical	Skills	Adventurous Journey
6 months	6 months	6 months	Plan, train for and complete a 3 day, 2 night adventurous journey
If you have not completed your Bronze Award, you must undertake a further six months of appropriate activity in either the Voluntary Service, Physical or Skills section			If you have not completed your Bronze Award, you must first complete your Bronze Adventurous Journey training and Bronze practice journey

Gold (16+ years old)

To achieve your Gold Award, you need to complete the following sections:

Voluntary Service	Physical	Skills	Adventurous Journey	Gold Residential Project
12 months	12 months	12 months	Plan, train for and complete a 4 day, 3 night adventurous journey	Undertake a shared activity in a residential setting away from home for 5 days and 4 nights
If you have not completed your Silver Award, you must undertake a further six months of appropriate activity in either the Voluntary Service, Physical or Skills section			If you are a Direct Entrant Gold, you must first complete your Bronze and then your Silver Adventurous Journey training and practice journey

Choosing activities

There are a lot of activities you may already be doing that can count towards your Award. Here are a few examples to help get you started:

Voluntary Service: Volunteer with DOC and help protect our native flora and fauna, coach or manage a sports team, fundraise for a charity, volunteer at the SPCA, become a leader at a youth club, help with an emergency services team such as surf lifesaving

Physical: do a team sport such as soccer or netball, athletics, skiing, kayaking, kickboxing, horse riding, running, dancing

Skills: play a musical instrument, learn a craft such as jewellery making, referee or umpire for a sport, learn sign language, drama, and theatre skills

Adventurous Journey: this is something you will plan for; it involves being part of a team and completing an adventurous journey for a set number of days. The Boyle provide many amazing opportunities for training and tramps to help you achieve your Adventurous Journey.

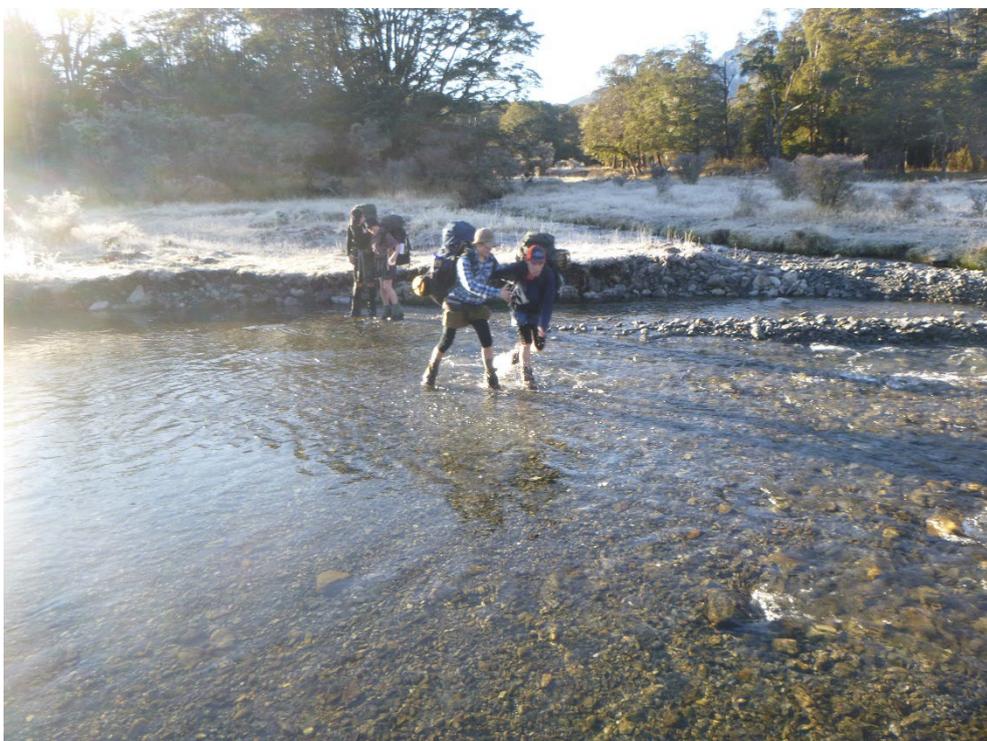

Gold Residential Project (Gold Award only): attend a residential programme for five days and four nights with people you don't know and undertake purposeful activity – e.g., helping at a youth camp, cookery course, sailing course

How Can the Boyle Help?

The North Canterbury Alpine Trust is the 'not for profit' operator of the Boyle River Outdoor Education Centre. The Boyle provides opportunities to complete the Adventurous Journey section of your Award. You will need a sense of adventure and discovery as you go on a team journey, expedition, or exploration in our big Kiwi backyard. You will have the opportunity to learn more about the wider environment, as well as learn teamwork skills, make real decisions, and accept real consequences, and gain self-confidence. You'll probably end up outside your comfort zone at times, but you'll be kept safe with training and supervision. The result will be experiences you'll remember forever— you won't regret a minute of it

We run all levels of Journey - BRONZE, SILVER & GOLD

The Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award Gold residential project requires you to engage with others who are not your usual companions and undertake a shared project away from home over a period of at least five days.

Getting started

- Step 1 Decide which level of the Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award programme you would like to do – this will depend on your age, time commitments etc
- Step 2 Talk to your Award Leader and arrange to register to do your Award programme
- Step 3 Decide with your Award Leader what you are going to do for each section of your Award programme
- Step 4 Get started! Don't forget to log your progress on ORB, our online record book, and ask your Assessors to sign off each section as you complete them
- Step 5 Once your Award programme is complete, speak to your Award Leader who will arrange for you to receive your certificate or badge. They can also advise you about starting the next level of the Award if appropriate.

How long will it take?

The time it will take to complete your programme and achieve an Award is in many ways down to you. The shortest time in which you can complete your Bronze programme is 6 months; your Silver programme, 6 months; and your Gold programme, 12 months. During your programme you'll need to do each activity for an average of an hour a week over this time. Don't forget – you have until your 25th birthday to complete any programme and achieve an Award!
